

It is already nearly impossible to find intelligent, balanced, coverage and alternative viewpoints in the media. I strongly oppose more consolidation of the already behemoth media conglomerations. The media SHOULD serve the public, by informing and educating, and allowing for all viewpoints to be presented, instead of being a forum for global corporate interests. On June 2nd, please vote to retain the current ownership rules.